Educational Exchange 2022 – November 6th-8th, 2022 (Legacy Lodge – Lanier Islands, GA)

- Theme/Logo- After discussion on various themes, a motion to use the theme “From Surviving to Thriving” at the 2022 Educational Exchange was made by David Kidd. The motion was seconded by Pamela Cartwright and carried without opposition.
- Session Topic/Speakers- Chuck Ingolia, Judy Fitzgerald, and Kristin Woodlock were all discussed as potential keynote speakers at the Exchange. Robyn Garrett informed the group that she would reach out to all parties with an invitation to speak at the Exchange. The group agreed that a “Back to Basics” workshop was necessary for the HR Directors. Other workshop ideas included:
 - Continued discussion about CCBHCs
 - Peer workforce
 - Integrated Care
 - Co-Response
 - College of Direct Support (to present on The Living Well Project, etc.)
 - Cultural Competence- How Do We Communicate Across Cultures
- Partnership Calendar Year discussion- This topic was not discussed at the meeting.

Educational Exchange 2023

Robyn Garret advised the group that Renee Millians had been looking at potential venue options for the 2023 Educational Exchange. The Executive Office will present these ideas at the next committee meeting on May 16, 2022.

CCBHC Preparedness

The Training Project was not discussed during the meeting.
