Government and Public Affairs Update	Travis Lindley reported that HB520 is actively being monitored and the Senate Health and Human Services subcommittee will have a public hearing on Monday, March 13, 2023, at 2PM. Cathalene Teahan reported that a constitutional amendment would be required in order for any sports betting bill to include funds being appropriated to behavioral health. There was much discussion regarding the portion of HB520 (lines 911-913) that includes licensed therapists (LPCs & LMFTs) in Federally Qualified Health Centers (FQHC's) being able to bill Medicaid. Members discussed the workforce stability issue this would cause for CSBs. Members collectively agreed to let Robyn Garrett	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Reach out to Michael Polacek for internal discussion before moving forward with contacting members of Senate HHS Subcommittee Draft & send talking points for members to use when contacting Senate HHS Subcommittee members.
